

School Group Reservation Policies and Pricing Information

- As a public garden, Coastal Maine Botanical Gardens welcomes all groups. However, in order to fully accommodate each group, we require all school groups (self-guided or guided) to book at least two weeks in advance through the Education Department; in return we provide your school group with a classroom space (indoors or out) to call home for the day.
- To schedule your visit, please email fieldtrips@mainegardens.org or call Erika Huber, Youth and Family Program Coordinator, at 207-633-8031.
- School groups that do not book through the Education Department will be directed to the Visitor Center to pay the regular daily rate and are not guaranteed a classroom space.
- The field trip season runs from April 15-Oct. 31. Field trip availability at the Gardens is daily in the spring and fall, and daily – excluding Mondays and Fridays – in the summer as available.
- School groups may not exceed 60 students on any given day. If your school group is larger than this, we encourage you to make your reservations early so that we can divide your visit into multiple days.
- We require a 1:5 ratio of chaperone: student, regardless of age of the group. Chaperones must remain with their students at all times. Chaperones should be assigned to groups of five students or less before arriving at the Gardens.
- Discounted group admission for schools is $95 per class (not to exceed 25 students per class).
- The discounted group admission for school groups includes the admission for teachers and chaperones that are required in order to meet the 1:5 (adult:child) field trip ratio for visiting school groups. Any additional adults above this ratio will be charged our standard group admission rate for adults of $12 each.
- We require one form of payment. We accept purchase orders, cash, credit card, or organizational check.
